

The China Archive/Survey Project at Texas A&M University
and
The Program in the Cross-National Study of Politics

proudly announce the second annual

Graduate Student Workshop on Empirical Social Science Research on China

focusing on

Mass Survey Research in China

July 30-August 1, 2007

- * Purpose: To introduce the special issues and techniques of mass survey research in China, as well as the purpose and holdings of The China Archive.
- * Lectures: By well-known China survey researchers on

Sampling procedures (Pierre Landry, Yale University);
Questionnaire design (Tianjian Shi, Duke University & Texas A&M University);
Survey implementation (TBA)
- * Papers: Presented by student volunteers; submit 1-page proposals to Dr. Robert Harmel, Political Science Department, Texas A&M University, 4348 TAMU, College Station, TX 77843-4348 or email e339rh@polisci.tamu.edu. Papers presented at this workshop should utilize mass survey data on China. Students may register and attend the workshop without presenting a paper.
- * Location: On the campus of Texas A&M University in College Station; for information, contact Program in the Cross-National Study of Politics, Political Science Department, Texas A&M University, 4348 TAMU, College Station, TX 77843-4348 or email jsmith@polisci.tamu.edu.

* Cost: Participation in the workshop is free; all personal expenses (travel, lodging, meals, etc.) are the responsibility of each participant.

All graduate students, regardless of university or field, are welcome to attend. To register (by July 1, please) or for more information, contact Program in the Cross-National Study of Politics, Political Science Department, Texas A&M University, 4348 TAMU, College Station, TX 77843-4348 or email jsmith@polisci.tamu.edu. There is no charge for attending the workshop; however, those who come should commit to attending all sessions for all three days.

The 2007 Graduate Student Workshop on Empirical Social Science Research on China is a joint project of the Program in the Cross-National Study of Politics, The China Archive/Survey Project, and the College of Liberal Arts at Texas A&M University.